Addiction Treatment Center Supporting Springfield, Illinois

by Louisville Addiction Treatment Center | Sep 2, 2022

Addiction can be a challenging and isolating struggle, but it is important to remember that you are not alone. If you are seeking addiction treatment in Louisville, Kentucky, there is hope.

Addiction is a community problem where all those around the addict- those who live, work, and interact with them are affected. Even if you don't have a family member struggling with addiction in Springfield, Illinois, your taxes go into helping these people in one way or another.

If you do have someone dealing with addiction in your family and are looking for an addiction treatment center supporting Springfield, Illinois, then there are a couple of factors to watch out for. First, you need to determine whether you're ready to travel for treatment or whether you want to attend a local rehab. After that, you need to consider the cost of treatment and the level of treatment you need to arrive at a suitable treatment center.

What Makes Impact IOP Suitable for Springfield Illinois Residents

Impact IOP is an addiction treatment center in Louisville, Kentucky. We offer different outpatient addiction services geared towards those who struggle with mild addiction or those who have completed an inpatient treatment program. You might be wondering why you would need to travel to Impact IOP from Springfield.

Here are some of the reasons why:

Serene location

Our rehab facility is designed to be modern and comfortable enough to help you focus on your treatment. We're located in a serene environment in the heart of Mt. Washington and we're the ideal place for you to start a new life free from addiction. Traveling for rehab can help you put your previous hostile environment behind you and help you concentrate on getting better.

Flexible treatment programs

Here at Impact IOP, we specialize in both alcohol and drug addictions. We offer intensive outpatient and outpatient programs that are flexible enough to meet our clients' lifestyles. We understand that life sometimes gets busy and you need a treatment program that allows you to keep up with your responsibilities. That's why we also offer a telomedicine option where clients can attend their therapy sessions virtually so they can keep up with treatment wherever they are.

Affordable care

We strive to provide affordable addiction treatment to all our clients. That is why we work with most major insurance carriers to help you cover the cost of treatment. We also have a simplified admissions process with the goal of having clients begin treatment within 24 hours. We'll give you an initial intake appointment and assessment then offer same-day admission if we're a suitable match for you.

Dual Diagnosis

We also offer a dual diagnosis. When someone is struggling with addiction, they often have an underlying condition affecting them including depression and anxiety, among others. At Impact IOP, we offer treatment for both addiction and underlying conditions. This helps ensure that you have a lasting and sustainable recovery.

If you're looking for a suitable addiction treatment center supporting Springfield Illinois, reach out to Impact Outpatient Program today. We'll be happy to guide you through your recovery journey.
